

Light-weighting Solutions

Replacing automotive parts with light weight plastic material is the top challenge that vehicle makers are facing to meet the demands of improving fuel efficiency.

FCS proposes corresponding solutions to help the vehicle industry achieve its goals, from the selection of injection molding machines, and the optimization of structures, materials and manufacturing processes.

Click to check the latest trends and solutions!

Cars on a Diet – LFT-D

Multi-component Auto Lamps

YouTube

QQ Video